

Din dragoste de țară!

Title: For the love of my country

Abstract: Every interview that King Michael I gives is a history lesson! A history lesson came from a man who was a participant and witness of the dramatic events of the past Romania, Europe and the world, of war itself and the years preceding it and the communization half of Europe. The only living Head of State from that critical period and painful to millions of people, King Michael speaks for the first time in this interview about the mistakes of present policy, about the destroyed mentalities but also about his country, Romania, the one that he never forgot and never ceased to love!
