

East-West Culture Passage: Vol. 2/ 2003

CONTENTS

Article	Author	Page
Foreword		7
The Legacy of 'Confession': Robert Lowell's Poetic Descendants	Kimball MacKay	9
Blaga's Philosophy of culture: More than a Spenglerian Adaptation	Michael Jones	23
Lady Gregory and America. Her Role in the Transatlantic Reception of the Irish Revival	Madeleine Kinsella	37
Faulkner's Approach to Writing and Speaking in "Country Lawyer"	Didi-Ionel Cenușer	57
Defending Humanistic Textual Criticism from the Perils of Rationalistic Reductionism: A Narrative Extension of the Informal Reasoning Models of Toulmin and Perelman	Eric Gilder	65
Identity and Difference:	Alexandra Mitrea	81
The Self and the Other in Saul Bellow's Work
Contemporary Interpretations of Steinbeck's Short-stories	Sorin Ștefănescu	99
Inside/Outside: Reflections on the Blues Metaphor in Hurston's Their Eyes Were Watching God and Jones' Corregidora	Anca Luminița Iancu	109
Double-Voiced Otherness –The Otherness of Otherness: Race, Gender and the Constitution of Female Identity in African-American Feminine Writing	Carmen Pietraru	125
Melting Pot: Andrei Codrescu's Journey from Romania to America and back again as a Shards-Collector	Roxana Crișan
The Holocaust – The 'Obsessive' Event	Virgil Nistor	145